Goodwill Honors Its Noblesville Store

The Noblesville Goodwill Store will receive the Store of the Year award on May 6 from Goodwill Industries of Central Indiana, Inc., for its commitment to finding ways for all employees to excel in the workplace while meeting the needs of its customers.

The store demonstrates how the Retail Division strives to serve Goodwill's mission – by increasing sales and by increasing the self-sufficiency of its employees and customers.

Additionally, two individuals and two partnerships will be recognized at Goodwill's luncheon. The full list of honorees includes:

- Achiever of the Year – Houston Leek
- Barbara Robinson Memorial Award – Joe Forehand
- Employer of the Year – Polk Food Services
- Partner of the Year – Lincoln Technical Institute
- Goodwill Store of the Year – Noblesville

Keynote speaker will be Christel DeHaan, founder, Christel House International; awards will be presented by James McClelland, president, Goodwill Industries of Central Indiana, Inc., and C. Perry Griffith Jr., chairman, Goodwill Industries of Central Indiana, Inc.

Each award presentation will include a video of the recipient. Copies for use in editing can be arranged by contacting Cindy L. Graham at (317) 524-4212 or (317) 459-4162.
