Goodwill to Open Third Outlet Store June 4 on Indianapolis' North Side

Members of the media are invited to preview the new Goodwill Outlet Store-North before it opens. Please call to schedule an appointment.

Dates: May 26-30, 2008
Times: By appointment only

On Wednesday, June 4, Goodwill Industries will open another retail outlet store, Goodwill Outlet Store-North, located at 8345 Georgetown Road. Shoppers who visit the new outlet store from 9-11 a.m. on grand opening day will have the chance to meet the popular Goodwill Guy.

At the Goodwill Outlet Stores, clearance clothing, housewares, glassware and toys are sold by the pound, and the price per pound decreases with volume. All other outlet merchandise is individually priced. Items sold by the pound in the outlet stores are not pre-sorted. All merchandise is sold as-is, and all sales are final. No refunds or exchanges are accepted.

The outlet store is the third of its kind in Indiana, and the concept already has proven successful at the Goodwill Outlet Store-East, 2900 N. Shadeland Ave., and the Goodwill Outlet Store-West, 6650 W. Washington St.

The new northside outlet facility employs 85 people, who will work in the outlet store, donation center and warehouse, and boasts more than 14,000 square feet of retail space, over 100 parking spaces, three checkout lanes and a donation center. Store hours are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday and noon to 6 p.m. on Sunday.

From June 4-13, shoppers can register to win an iPod or portable DVD player at any of the three outlet stores. Two of each will be given away at each outlet location.

Goodwill helps people find jobs. Revenue generated from Goodwill retail stores helps fund employment and educational services in central Indiana. With the support of retail donors and shoppers, Goodwill's services helps people develop the skills they need to find good jobs and to better support themselves and their families.
